

The Pump Calendar Competition: Entry form

Entry is FREE

We are seeking photographs of the local area for the 2012 Pump Calendar which will be on sale during the late autumn and winter of 2011. The Pump is a non-profit community magazine which goes to inhabitants of the three parishes of Sampford Arundel; Thorne St Margaret and Rockwell Green, the hamlets in between and members of all the local organisations. The winning photographs will be included for each month of the calendar – the winners may have their names printed with the photograph unless we are notified to the contrary.

Photographs will be judged in four categories and age taken into account:

1. Local views and vistas
2. ‘A special local event’
3. ‘A local character’
4. Local Natural life e.g. farming; wildlife

Terms and Conditions:

- You must live in one of the three parishes.
- Please write your name, address and age (if under 16) on the back of the photograph in pencil. (We do not promise to return the photographs)
- Write the category in which you wish your photograph to be judged.
- Photographs may be in black and white but preferably in colour.
- They should be approximately 8” by 6” and you can add a suggestion for a title.
- You can submit as many as you wish.
- Entries must be in by 31 August 2011.
- Give the photograph(s) to any member of the Pump team with this form, email as an attachment to an editor or: Johnburgess400@btinternet.com Ref Calendar
- Or post/give to John Burgess, Coatlands, Sampford Arundel, Wellington

